HACA organizes a training session on media professionalism and auto-regulation

26 Apr 2018

The High Authority for Audiovisual Communication (HACA) initiative on organizing a training session on “Professionalism as a pillar to auto-regulation and good practices” was settled by the Arab States Broadcasting Union (ASBU) Academy for media training in HACA’s headquarters in Rabat from 18th to 20th April 2018.

This training session witnessed the participation of 21 journalists and professionals from the Moroccan public broadcasting companies and private radios, in addition to a number of officials from the HACA.

The session was inaugurated by Ms. Amina Lemrini El Ouahabi, President of the HACA, together with Dr. Jamal Eddine Naji the Director General.

The session was also assured by Dr. Reda Nejjar coordinator of the ASBU Academy, as it was financed, particularly pedagogically, by the High Authority for Audiovisual Communication.
